CALL FOR PAPERS

INSTRUCTION TO AUTHORS

Zaria Geographer is a biannual journal of the Department of Geography and Environmental Management, Faculty of Physical Sciences, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria. The journal publishes papers, review articles and conference reports in all areas of Environmental Science and Development Studies.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

Articles are submitted with the understanding that they have not been previously published or are presently under consideration for publication elsewhere. A letter of undertaking signed by all named authors should accompany an article that it reports unpublished work and if accepted by Zaria Geographer will not be published elsewhere in the same form in English or in any other language without the consent of the editors. Authors should submit an electronic copy of the manuscript(s) to the Editor-in-Chief, Zaria Geography via e-mail; zariageographer.abu@gmail.com. The manuscript should be sent in Microsoft Word for easy editing. A cover letter that includes the manuscript(s) title and full contact information, including mailing address, phone and e-mail address, of the author(s) should accompany the submission. Receipt of manuscript(s) will be communicated to the corresponding author within 24 hours.

PRESENTATION OF MANUSCRIPTS

The manuscript should not exceed 15 pages (Times New Roman, Font size 12, Double line spacing). All pages should be numbered consecutively, and the contents should be arranged in the following order:-

Title; Names of authors; Departments and Institutions; Abstract; Keywords; Introduction; The Study Area; Materials and Methods; Results and Discussion; Conclusion; Acknowledgement; and References

Title: The title should unambiguously reflect the contents of the paper. The first page should contain the title of the manuscript.

Name of Address: Avoid the use of titles for authors. The names of the authors and their address (es) should follow the title. Where there is more than one author the corresponding author should be indicated.

Abstract: The abstract, usually not exceeding 250 words should indicate the scope and significant content of the paper, highlighting the principal findings and conclusion.

Keywords: About 4-6 Keywords in alphabetical order should be provided.

Introduction: The introduction should be concise and should state precisely the aim of the study being reported.

The Study Area: It is highly recommended that a brief write-up of the study area be included. This should also include a well-produced map of the study area.

Materials and Methods: New methods should be described in sufficient detail. Where the methods are already well known, details should be referred to literature cited.

Results and Discussion: The results may be separated from the discussion. Only data essential for understanding the discussion and main conclusions emerging from the study should be included. The data should be statistically analyzed, where appropriate and the level of significance given.

Conclusion: This should stem directly from the data presented and must be consistent with the introduction in fulfilling any promise made therein to the reader.

Acknowledgement: This should be brief and only for special assistance including source of financial support.

Reference: Use the APA referencing style.

Table and Graphs: Each table and graph or illustration should be prepared in such a way as to permit photo reproduction. In case of photographs, prints should be on glossy paper and must show good contrast.

Abbreviation and Symbols: Standard abbreviations should be used in the text, tables and illustration without full stop. Unusual abbreviation, trade names and semi ambiguous terms should be defined at first point of use.

SI Units: The journal requires the use of SI units for all numerical data.

Proofs: Author's proof must be returned through registered mail within two weeks of receipt. Editor in-chiefs' permission must be sought before new materials are inserted. Any drastic change will attract further charges.

Charges: Processing fee is Seven Thousand Naira (₦7,000:00) per manuscript which must be paid before review while the publication page charges is Thirty Thousand Naira (₦30,000:00) or 100 US Dollars, per article accepted for publication which is payable only after final approval of compliance to reviewers' comments.

Author's copy: The corresponding author shall be given one (1) copy of the journal
